DETAILED ACTION

This communication is in response to the Appeal Brief filed October 4, 2004.

At the least, the brief does not contain a concise explanation of the invention defined in the claims involved in the appeal, which refers to the specification by page and line number, and to the drawing, if any, by reference characters as required by 37 CFR 1.192(c)(5).

See MPEP 1206 which specifically requires:

(5) Summary of Invention. A concise explanation of the invention defined in the claims involved in the appeal. This explanation is required to refer to the specification by page and line number, and, if there is a drawing, to the drawing by reference characters. Where applicable, it is preferable to read the appealed claims on the specification and any drawing. While reference to page and line number of the specification may require somewhat more detail than simply summarizing the invention, it is considered important to enable the Board to more quickly determine where the claimed subject matter is described in the application.

The Examiner comments that the Appeal Brief is defective for the above reason at the least; there may be other defects. Appellant should make a complete review of the Appeal Brief and make changes to comply with requirements published in the Federal Register/Vol. 69, No.155/Thursday, August 12, 2004/Rules and Regulations. See at least pages 49962 and 49963. These pages detail requirements for compliance with new practice. The Federal Register is available at the US Patent and Trademark Office website, www.uspto.gov.

Appellant is required to comply with provisions of 37 CFR 1.192(c).

Art Unit: 3624

To avoid dismissal of the appeal, Appellant must comply with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.192(c) within the longest of any of the following TIME PERIODS: (1) ONE MONTH or THIRTY DAYS, whichever is longer, from the mailing of this communication; (2) within the time period for reply to the action from which appeal has been taken; or (3) within two months from the date of the notice of appeal under 37 CFR 1.191. Extensions of these time periods may be granted under 37 CFR 1.136.
